LEEROY KENYORU
KENYA | (+254)745 313 676 | kenyoruleeroy17@gmail.com |
https://github.com/Kenyoru17/schproject.git

PROFILE

Dynamic and versatile professional with expertise in computer hardware repairs, front-end development, and cybersecurity. Currently pursuing a degree in Bachelor of Business Information Technology (BBIT), with a keen interest in leveraging emerging technologies to solve complex problems. Possesses a strong track record of delivering high-quality electronic repairs and developing user-friendly interfaces. A proactive learner with a passion for staying updated with the latest trends in technology and cybersecurity.

EDUCATION

Diploma In Information Technology July 2023
Certificate In Cyber Security December 2023

SKILLS

- Communication
- Laptops and phone repairs
- Front end development
- Pen testing

- Coding
- Database Management
- Artificial intelligence
- Cloud security

WORK EXPERIENCE

Cargo handler March 2018 – December 2019
Jomo Kenyatta International Airport

- Efficiently handled cargo operations at Jomo Kenyatta International Airport, ensuring timely loading and unloading of shipments.
- Demonstrated proficiency in safely maneuvering various types of cargo, including fragile and hazardous materials.
- Collaborated closely with team members to prioritize tasks and streamline workflow, resulting in improved efficiency and customer satisfaction.
- Adhered to strict safety protocols and regulations to maintain a secure working environment.
- Provided exceptional customer service by promptly addressing inquiries and resolving issues related to cargo handling.

IT department internship April 2022 – September 022
Oloolaiser water company

- Interned at Oloolaiser Water Company in the IT department for five months.
- Contributed to projects aimed at improving technological infrastructure and operational efficiency.
- Gained hands-on experience in troubleshooting hardware and software issues.
- Participated in system upgrades and data management initiatives.
- Strengthened passion for IT and acquired valuable practical experience.